

Rabbits are Really Bad

A Field Day showcasing feral rabbit control and other natural resource management issues

WORKSHOP TOPICS INCLUDE

- RabbitScan Citizen science: data collection and monitoring
- Known infestations North and South Burnett and even on the coast
- Challenges for landholders Damage to productivity and to the environment
- Management options Latest research and management options – trapping, baiting, fumigating, biological control.
- Demonstrations Trapping, baiting and other management tools on display with North Burnett Regional Council Officers
- Incentives available* For management of rabbits and other pest animals in the Burnett

With guest speakers:

Dr David Berman - Senior Zoologist, Biosecurity Queensland

John Conroy – Biosecurity Queensland

Bernie Shore – Biosecurity Queensland

North Burnett Regional Council Lands Protection Officers also available for discussion about local pest and weed issues.

RM Williams Learning

Centre, Eidsvold

THURSDAY

March 29th 2012

9am to Noon

Light lunch to finish the day

Register your interest for this FREE workshop with BURNETT CATCHMENT CARE ASSOCIATION on 4166 3898 or admin@burnettcatchment.org by March 28th.

This workshop is supported by Burnett Catchment Care Association, through funding from the Australian Government's Caring for our Country.

CARING FOR OUR COUNTRY

